

Ojibwe Language

Contributed by Cultural Division

Monday, 14 February 2005

Last Updated Wednesday, 17 September 2008

Anishinaabemowin is responsible for the development of a long-term sustainable program to re-establish the Ojibwe language. This office coordinates all sources of funding to support programs and established a curriculum for the education of all tribal members within the service area.