(successor by merger to Good Will Co., Inc.) dated June 2, 2015 and containing Exhibits A-C (the "Purchase Agreement"), and (b) limited in duration to the expiration of the limitations period for an action for breach of the Conservation Easements Rights and Obligations that occurred after the date of delivery of the Warranty Deed for the Property by the City to the Tribe (the "Transfer Date") through the date that the Tribe conveys ownership of Parcel A and/or Parcel B to another party, other than the United States in trust for the Tribe, provided that:

If the Tribe ever conveys ownership of Parcel A and/or Parcel B to another party other than to the United States in trust for the Tribe, that party would then become the Grantor of the Conservation Easement(s);

If the Tribe ever conveys Parcel A and/or Parcel B to the United States in trust for the Assignee, the Conservation Easement(s) would continue to be fully enforceable against the Tribe, as the beneficial owner, consistent with the Tribe's limited waiver of immunity, but would not be enforceable against the United States; and

further provided that the limited waiver of the Tribe's sovereign immunity will be effective if and only if all of the following conditions are met:

The claim is made by the City under Paragraph 5(A) of the Assignment Agreement, and not by any other person, corporation, partnership or entity, whatsoever;

The claim alleges a breach by the Tribe of one or more of the specific obligations or duties assumed pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Assignment Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, or the Conservation Easements;

The claim seeks specific performance and/or injunctive relief related to alleged non-compliance with the Assignment Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, or the Conservation Easements Rights and Obligations;

The claim may seek money damages for noncompliance with the terms and provisions of the Assignment Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, or the Conservation Easements Rights and Obligations; provided however, that the property, assets or funds specifically pledged and assigned to satisfy any judgment secured by the City under the Assignment Agreement shall be limited to operating profits of the Assignee; and

The claim is brought only in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Michigan.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that, as to the State, on condition that the State agrees that the limited waivers of sovereign immunity contained in the Assignment Agreement do not apply to any third parties, but apply only to the City and to the State of Michigan (through its agency the Department of Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy, and its successor entity (if any)), the Board of Directors hereby expressly approves and authorizes the specific limited waiver of sovereign immunity set forth in Paragraph 5(B) of the Assignment Agreement, i.e., only a limited waiver of its sovereign immunity from suit from proceedings a) initiated by the State of Michigan (through its agency the Department of Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy, and its successor entity (if any)) to enforce any rights or obligations the State may have (if any) pertaining to the Conservation Easements Rights and Obligations under the Assignment or under the Purchase Agreement, and (b) limited in duration to the shorter of (1) ten (10) years from the Transfer Date, to be automatically renewed for successive ten (10) year periods unless the Tribe and the State of Michigan mutually agree to terminate the Conservation Easement and notify each other of that agreement in writing as provided in Paragraph 8 of the Assignment Agreement not less than 90 days prior to the expiration of the then current durational period; or (2) unless the Assignee conveys ownership of Parcel A and/or Parcel B to another party other than to the United States in trust for the Tribe and the statute of limitations period lapses for acts done while the Tribe was the owner of Parcel A and/or Parcel B, provided that:

If the Tribe ever conveys ownership of Parcel A and/or Parcel B to another party other than to the United States in trust for the Tribe, that party would then become the Grantor of the Conservation Easement(s);

If the Tribe ever conveys Parcel A and/or Parcel B to the United States in trust for the Assignee, the Conservation Easement(s) would continue to be fully enforceable against the Tribe, as the beneficial owner, consistent with the Tribe's limited waiver of immunity, but would not be enforceable against the United States; and

further provided that the limited waiver of the Tribe's sovereign immunity will be effective if and only if all of the following conditions are met:

The claim is made by the State of Michigan (through its agency the Department of Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy, and its successor entity (if any)) under Paragraph 5(B) of the Assignment Agreement, and not by any other person, corporation, partnership or entity, whatsoever;

The claim alleges a breach by the Tribe of one or more of the specific obligations or duties assumed pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Assignment Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, or the Conservation Easements;

The claim seeks specific performance and/or injunctive relief related to alleged non-compliance with the Assignment Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, or the Conservation Easements Rights and Obligations;

The claim may seek money damages for noncompliance with the terms and provisions of the Assignment Agreement, the Purchase Agreement, or the Conservation Easements Rights and Obligations; provided however, that the property, assets or funds specifically pledged and assigned to satisfy any judgment secured by the City under the Assignment Agreement shall be limited to operating profits of the Assignee; and

The claim is brought only in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Michigan.

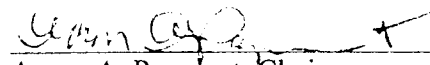

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board of Directors of the Tribe expressly grants a limited waiver of sovereign immunity from a judgment or order which is consistent with the terms and provisions of Paragraphs 5 and 6 of the Assignment Agreement, and which judgment or order is final because either (a) the time for appeal thereof has expired or (b) the judgment or an order is issued by a court having final appellate jurisdiction over the matter.

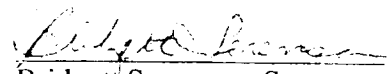

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that, notwithstanding any other provision of this Resolution, and on condition that (without waiving its sovereign and governmental immunity) the City shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Tribe from all claims arising, through no fault of the Tribe, in connection with the Conservation Rights and Obligations and the Purchase Agreement Rights and Obligation, prior to or on the Transfer Date, the Board of Directors expressly does not waive its sovereign and governmental immunity, if the Board indemnifies, defends and holds harmless the City from all claims arising, through no fault of the City, in connection with the Conservation Easements Rights and Obligations and the Purchase Agreement Rights and Obligations assumed by the Tribe from and after the Transfer.

BE IT FURTHER FINALLY RESOLVED, that the Board of Directors of the Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians hereby authorizes Chairperson Aaron Payment, after review by the Tribe's designated legal counsel to execute the Assignment Agreement, to purchase and obtain title insurance on these properties, to sign such other closing documents as the Tribe's designated legal counsel will direct prior to or at closing, and to make all necessary expenditures reasonably required for these purposes.
