(1) Any Defendant charged with a crime in which the Tribe is exercising its special Tribal criminal jurisdiction pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization Act of 2022, shall be instructed by the judge presiding over their case, at the defendant's initial appearance before the Court, of their rights, including any rights provided under 25 U.S.C. §§ 1304(c) and 1304(e).

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of Tribal law, the requirements and rights set forth in this Section shall be ensured in addition to—or shall supersede any inconsistent—provisions set forth in the Tribal Code in order to ensure compliance with the Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization Act.

(3) An individual charged with a Covered Crime pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization Act shall:

- (e) Receive written notice of the right to habeas corpus petitions

70.116 Receipt of Plea at Arraignment.

(1) If the accused pleads 'not guilty' to the charge, the judicial officer shall then inform the accused of a trial date and set conditions for bail prior to trial.

(2) If the accused pleads 'guilty' to the charge, the Judge shall determine that the plea was made voluntarily and that the accused understands the consequences of the plea, including the rights which the accused is waiving by the plea. The Judge may then impose sentence or defer sentencing for a reasonable time in order to obtain any information he or she deems necessary for the imposition of a just sentence. The accused shall be afforded an opportunity to inform the Tribal Court of facts in mitigation of the sentence.

(3) If the accused refuses to plead, the judicial officer shall enter a plea of not guilty on his or her behalf.

(4) The accused may enter a plea of “no contest”. If the accused pleads “no contest” to an offense, it shall be done only with the consent of the Judge and the prosecutor. If the accused chooses to plead “no contest”, the Judge shall follow the same procedure required for a guilty plea; except, the Judge shall not question the accused as to the underlying facts, but shall, by some other means, obtain support for a finding that the accused has committed the offense to which he or she is pleading. The Judge shall state why a plea of no contest is appropriate.

70.117 Bail - Release Prior to Trial.

Every person charged with a criminal offense before the Tribal Court shall be entitled to release from custody pending trial under whichever one or more of the following conditions is deemed necessary to reasonably assure the appearance of the person at any time lawfully required:

- (5) Release after execution of a bail agreement by two responsible members of the community.
- (6) Release upon any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure the appearance of the accused as required.

70.118 Release by Police Officer.

Any Tribal police officer authorized to do so by the Tribal Court may admit an arrested person to bail pursuant to the bail schedule of release upon personal recognizance. Police officers shall have available a bail schedule prepared by the Tribal Court or Tribal Board of Directors which shall be used for setting money bond where such condition of release is deemed necessary. Any police officer who refuses to release an accused on bail or who specifies a bail condition which the accused is unable to satisfy shall bring the accused before a Tribal judicial officer for review of the release conditions at the first available opportunity and without unnecessary delay.

70.119 Bail - Release Pending Appeal.

Every person who has been convicted of a Tribal offense and who has filed an appeal or a petition of a writ of habeas corpus shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of 70.116 unless the Judge has substantial reason to believe that no conditions of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the accused or that release of the accused is likely to pose a danger to the community, to the accused or to any other person. If the Judge finds such to be the case, he or she may order detention of the accused.

70.120 Withdrawal of Guilty Plea.

The Tribal Court may, in its discretion, allow a defendant to withdraw a plea of guilty whenever it appears that the interest of justice and fairness would be served by doing so.

70.121 Right to Counsel.

(1) No defendant in a criminal proceeding shall be denied the right to counsel at his or her own expense.

(4) Counsel representing a defendant charged with a Covered Crime under the Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization Act shall be an attorney licensed to practice law by any jurisdiction and admitted to practice before the Tribal Court pursuant to Tribal Code Chapter 87.

70.122 Issuance of Subpoenas.

(1) Upon request of any party to a case or upon the Tribal Court's own initiative, the Tribal Court shall issue subpoenas to compel the testimony of witnesses, or the production of books, records, documents or any other physical evidence which is relevant, necessary to the determination of the case and not an undue burden on the person possessing the evidence. The Clerk of the Court may act on behalf of the Tribal Court and issue subpoenas which have been signed by a Tribal Judge and which are to be served within the confines of the Tribe's reservation.

(2) A subpoena shall bear the signature of a judicial officer of the Tribal Court or of an attorney of record in the action, and it shall state the name of the court, the name of the person or description of the physical evidence to be subpoenaed, the title of the proceeding, and the time and place where the witness is to appear or the evidence is to be produced.

70.123 Service of Subpoenas.

(1) A subpoena may be served at any place within or without the confines of the Tribe's reservation, but any subpoena to be served outside the reservation shall be issued personally by a Judge of the Tribal Court.

(2) A subpoena may be served by any Tribal police officer or other person appointed by the Tribal Court for such purpose. Service of a subpoena shall be made by delivering a copy of it to the person named or by leaving a copy at his or her place of residence with any person sixteen (16) years of age or older who also resides there.

(3) Proof of service of the subpoena shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court by noting on the back of a copy of the subpoena the date, time and place that it was served and noting the name of the person to whom it was delivered. Proof of service shall be signed by the person who actually served the subpoena.

70.124 Failure to Obey Subpoena.

In the absence of a justification satisfactory to the Tribal Court, a person who fails to obey a subpoena may be deemed to be in contempt of court and a bench warrant may be issued for his or her arrest.

70.125 Witness Fees.

(1) Each witness answering a subpoena shall be entitled to a fee of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each day his or her services are required in court. In addition, the Tribal Court may order the payment of reasonable travel and living expenses of the witness.

(2) The fees and expenses provided for in this section shall be paid by the Tribe upon completion of the trial, but such expenses may be taxed as costs against the defendant if he or she is found guilty, provided, however, that no defendant shall be incarcerated solely because of his or her inability to pay such costs immediately.

(3) If the Tribal Court finds that a complaint was not filed in good faith but with frivolous or malicious intent, it may order the complainant to reimburse the Tribe for expenditures incurred under this section, and such order shall constitute a judgment upon which execution may levy.

70.126 Trial Procedure.

(1) The time and place of court sessions, and all other details of judicial procedure not specified in this chapter or other chapters of the Tribal Code, shall be set out in rules of court adopted by the Tribal Court.

(2) The Tribal Court shall not be bound by common law rules of evidence, or the rules of evidence which pertain in state or federal courts, and may establish such rules of

(a) The defendant shall have a right to a trial by an impartial jury of no less than six persons, that is drawn from sources that reflect a fair cross section of the community; and do not systematically exclude any distinctive group in the community, including non-Indians.

(b) Eligible jurors in STCJ cases may be selected from a variety of sources including but not limited to enrolled members of the Tribe, residents within the jurisdiction of Tribe, full-time employees of the Tribe or its entities (educational, institutions, businesses, agencies, subdivisions, or instrumentalities) who have completed the required probationary period, and persons leasing lands from the Tribe. Further, the individuals must have reached the age of eighteen (18) years, have not been convicted of a felony, and are not otherwise unqualified according to standards established by the Tribal Court under its general rule-making authority.

(5) Each party shall have the right to challenge an unlimited number of jurors for cause on the basis of lack of qualifications, partiality or otherwise acceptable reason. In addition, each party shall have the right to a maximum of three peremptory challenges for jurors, for which no reasons need be given and which the Judge shall not refuse to grant.

(6) The Judge shall instruct the jury with regard to the applicable law and the jury shall decide all questions of fact on the basis of that law.

(7) The jury shall deliberate in secret and return a verdict of guilty or not guilty. The judge shall render judgment in accordance with the jury verdict.

(8) Each juror shall be paid out of Tribal funds a stipend for each day of service at a rate set by the Chief Judge on an annual basis, not to exceed $25.00 per day, and shall be reimbursed for mileage from the juror's residence to and from the court at the current government rate, and for ferry expenses actually incurred.

(3) If, solely because of indigency, a convicted offender is unable to pay forthwith a money fine assessed under this section or costs assessed under this section or '70.124, the Tribal Court shall allow the offender a reasonable period of time to pay the entire sum or allow the offender to make reasonable installment payments to the Clerk of the Court at specific intervals until the entire sum is paid. If the offender defaults on such payments the Tribal Court may find him or her in contempt of court and imprison him or her accordingly.

- (b) The Court shall retain the authority to modify or to waive this requirement, in whole or in part, as the interests of justice may require.
- (c) To encourage and reward prompt payment, any charges imposed under this subsection shall be reduced by 50% if those charges are paid in full within 60 days from the date that the Tribe initially bills those charges to the offender or within 60 days from the date of the offender's release from custody, whichever occurs later.

70.129 Probation.

(1) Where a sentence of imprisonment has been imposed on a convicted offender the Tribal Court may, in its discretion, suspend the serving of such sentence and release the person on probation under any reasonable conditions deemed appropriate by the Tribal Court, provided that the period of probation shall not exceed two years for all offenses.

(2) Any person who violates the terms of this probation may be required by the Tribal Court to serve the sentence originally imposed or such part of it as the Tribal Court may determine to be suitable, giving consideration to all the circumstances, provided that such revocation of probation shall not be ordered without a hearing before the Tribal Court at which the offender shall have the opportunity to explain his or her actions.

70.131 Appeals.

Appeals from any sentence or other final judgment or order in a criminal case may be taken in accordance with the provisions of Tribal Code Chapter 82.

70.132 Arrest on State Warrant.

70.133 Protection of Traditional Anishinaabe Religious and Cultural Activities.

(1) The Tribe declares that the drum and other traditional Anishinaabe religious and cultural activities are sacred and entitled to protection under tribal law. Tribal law enforcement officers are directed to refrain from interfering in such activities, and to protect such activities from interference from others, whether such interference is in the guise of enforcement of criminal or civil laws or otherwise.
