

History of Native American Boarding Schools and their Lasting Impact

A presentation that explores the history of boarding schools and their lasting impact on Indigenous communities.

Monday, October 5
at 6:00 PM

Library Commons
LSSU

Featuring

Charlee Brissette

Oral History Co-Director at the National Native American Boarding School Healing Coalition.

In the spirit of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (September 30)

Reception with light refreshments after.

All are welcome.

A time for learning, reflection and community.

Hosted by
LSSU Native American Center,
Eskoonwid Endaad

