

Community Visioning for Climate and Health Adaptation

Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians Resilient Housing Design Project

Scan to RSVP

Online Zoom Meeting Click here to RSVP:

https://msu.zoom.us/meeting/register/CYzAnzT1TaG_EXergFJx6Q

Time: Tuesday, November 5 6:30-8:00pm

About the Project

The Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians, MDHHS, MSU Extension, and MSU-SPDC are partnering on climate and health adaptation planning technical assistance for resilient home and property design.

Meeting Agenda

- 6:30 Introductions:
Welcome & Project Overview
- 6:40 Design Recommendations:
Before & After Images
- 7:00 Feedback & Co-Design:
Comment & Discussion
- 7:50 Next Steps

Design With Us

Join us to review preliminary resilient housing designs across four eco-regions and share your feedback and knowledge on sustainable techniques for Tribal households and the community.

- Highland Home
- Marsh Haven Home
- Dune Shore Home
- Prairie Home

CONTACTS

Brad Neumann,
Senior Extension Educator, MSU Extension
neuman36@msu.edu 906-475-5731

Larry Jacques,
Director of Strategic Planning, Sault Ste. Marie
Tribe of Chippewa Indians
LJacques@saulttribe.net 906-635-6050

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

School of Planning, Design, and Construction

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Extension